
Litchfield Cavo Announces Managing Partner Transition

CHICAGO (Jan. 1, 2020) — The national law firm of Litchfield Cavo LLP today announced that John J. Jarosak has been appointed as the Firm’s managing partner, effective January 1, 2020. Alan I. Becker, who currently serves in that position, is returning to full-time practice within the Firm and will continue to focus his practice on business litigation, intellectual property and professional liability clients.

John will be only the second managing partner in the Firm’s history. His new responsibilities will include operational leadership for the 22 office firm including strategic growth initiatives following the firm's most recent office opening in Phoenix, Arizona.

John has been practicing law for more than 34 years and has been with Litchfield Cavo for more than 17 years. He is currently a partner in the Lynnfield, Massachusetts office, representing a variety of clients in construction liability, products liability, general liability and professional liability cases. John received his JD from the William & Mary Law School and his BS from Union College.

“John’s experience, professionalism and ongoing achievements at Litchfield Cavo are only a few of the many reasons why the executive committee selected him as successor. He is extremely qualified to lead us to continued success,” said Daniel G. Litchfield, chair of Litchfield Cavo’s executive committee. “I must recognize the hard work of Al Becker, my colleague and friend whom I have had the personal privilege and honor to work with for more than 38 years. He hired me out of law school and has mentored me for all these years. When the firm was founded in 1998, we had 14 attorneys. We now have more than 275 attorneys in 22 offices. Al was integral to this success and has been our leader throughout.”

“I am honored to have been selected to serve as Litchfield Cavo’s managing partner. Due to Al Becker’s leadership and the overall excellence of our attorneys, our Firm is well positioned to continue its expansion and maintain its position as one of the premier national litigation defense and coverage firms in the country. Moving forward, our Firm will continue to focus on providing excellent service to our clients,” said John.

Litchfield Cavo attorneys operate out of 22 offices, serving clients in more than 35 states nationwide.
